NORTHWEST ACCESS FUND PRIVACY POLICY & DISCLOSURE

The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act requires us to tell you what steps we take to safeguard the privacy of the financial information you provide to us. Here is a summary of our privacy and disclosure policies.

Our Privacy Policy
We may collect non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on your loan application
- People and organizations identified on your loan application
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates or others
- Information we receive from a consumer credit reporting agency

What We Disclose
We do not disclose any non-public personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone except as permitted by law.

Telling Your Story
We may use “your story” (for example, why you needed a loan, what equipment or technology you purchased and how it impacted your life) to explain and market our program to other borrowers and contributors. However, we will not identify you by name unless you give us permission to do so. If you do not wish to have your story told, please let us know at the time of your application. It will not affect loan eligibility.

Confidentiality & Security
Northwest Access Fund takes every precaution to ensure that your personal information remains private. Accordingly, we restrict access to non-public personal information about you to employees and agents of Northwest Access Fund, members of our loan review committee and Board on a need-to-know basis and guarantors, co-signors, vendors and providers who need to know that information to provide products or services requested by you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to comply with federal regulations to guard your non-public personal information.

Questions
If you have any questions or concerns about our privacy and disclosure policies, please contact Northwest Access Fund.
